Dear Friend Alice:

Well, here I am, I arrived home last evening and sure am glad to be here. You know it has been over seven teen years since, I left home. The folks were sure glad to see me.

How are you and your folks. I hope you are all O.K.

You know I had a wonderful trip, on my way out here. Had some bad weather. Lots of rain in Salt Lake & was held up in Evanston, Wyo. a couple of days by snow, (lots of it). out side of that, fine weather, all the way.

Here are some of the cities I went through. Went to Las Vegas and Mesquite, Nev., Cedar City and Salt Lake, Utah. Evanston, Laramie and Cheyenne, Wyo. Sidney, N. Platte and Lincoln, Neb. Council Bluffs, Des Moines and Davenport, Iowa, Rock Island, Joliet and Chicago Heights, Ill. Troy, Ind., Michigan City, Jackson and Ann Arbor, Mich., Toledo, Cleveland and then home.

I went out of my way by going through Michigan but I want to see it so I went.

Helped my Dad & Bro do some plumbing to-day. They put me right to work.

It has been sprinkling all day so was kind of cheery. Spring is just starting out there, but I think I will like it out here. I hope

I do as I want to stay home, for a while.

You know I kind of wanted to be there with you folks all the time I was on the way home. You know we were just beginning, to get to know each other.

Well, old dear, I will close for this time or you will think I am trying to write a magazine. Ha Ha. So bye bye for now. I remain

Your friend

Ernest.
